

MELE

Ulupalakua Red Wine

House style (n.)

A set of characteristics that shape the personality of the wines produced by a given winery. A powerful determinant of a winery's style, are those choices made by the winemaker in an effort to influence and guide the qualities and distinctiveness a wine displays and the stylistic philosophies they embrace.

A deep ruby-red blend crafts this approachable blend. Concentrated aromas of red berries mingle with notes of baking spices, sweet vanilla, and a hint of eucalyptus. The lush and skillfully balanced palate flows beautifully into a bright, juicy finish making Mele an ideal match for any meal.
